Whitehead Family

Smithfield, Va.

Whitchhead Family-

The Whitchhead Family in Virginia, appears to have come first to York County, as the will of a Thomas Whitchhead is recorded as early as 1660. As there are no other people of that name in the wills and administrations, we naturally conclude that the family subsequently found its way to Isle of Wight County, where is recorded the will of one Arthur Whitchhead in the year, 1711.

The proven line of the Whitchhead Family, with which this sketch begins is an Arthur Whitchhead, of Southampton County, whose will follows.

Arthur Whitchhead's Will Southampton County. Va.

To oldest son, Arthur Whitchhead, the plantation where he now lives on south side of a swamp called, Cabin Swamp and Mill cart path to Mr. Turner's line, to Cypress Swamp, also negro, Pompey.

To grandson, Arthur Whitchhead, negro, Jack.

To son, Lewis Whitchhead, the place where I live adjoining what I bought of Wm. ²Howe with 275 acres & land out in pine wood, also a plantation on Meherrin River and land on Potomacy Creek in Carolina with negroes, Mingo, Phillis and Peter. After my decease, and my mother's all household goods in the lower room of the new dwelling house, still, two guns, cattle with use of plantation and mill where Nathan Whitchhead lives and land on Meherrin River, for his life, and at his death this to go to my grandson, Benjamin Whitchhead, also to son, Nathan Whitchhead negroes, Pick and Rose. To son, Nathan, 200 acres on south side of swamp called Pollock's Beaver Pond, adjacent and near to my plantation, the said land being in Carolina over Fishing Creek, also beds, furniture cows, half dozen butter plates, three silver dishes. .

Mentions his four children, Jesse Whitchhead, Vollice Whitchhead,
John Whitchhead, and Sally Whitchhead.

Gives to son, Jesse, 80 lbs. cash.

Arthur Whitchhead died in Isle of Wight County without a will; but the Land Books in the Clerk's Office at Isle of Wight carry through a long period of years, his name and the number of acres of land owned by him. Skipping some years because it remained the same, it is seen that in 1828, he owned 325 acres. In 1837, he has 50, and 325. These adjoin John Roberts and Marshall's Mill. In 1845, Arthur Whitchhead had 325, and 140 acres ad. Eley's Mill, and 268 acres near Antioch Church.

Will Book 25. Page 51. Isle of Wight County.

Estate of Arthur Whitchhead who died 10 Oct., 1851, was returned by E. Chapman. Heirs. were L. Eley, Geo. W. Eley, James Hall. In 1855, when the estate was settled we find Benjamin, John, Pompey, William, and Joese coming into possession of Arthur Whitchhead's land.

Capt. Charles B. Codwin, now eighty years old, a nephew of Pompey Whitchhead above, and reared by Pompey Whitchhead, who lived near Whitchhead's Grove Baptist Church in Henric County, told me that Joese Whitchhead, and Pompey Whitchhead were brothers.

X The Joese Whitchhead, above, married Eliza Ann Carr on Jan. 4, 1844.

Arthur Whitchhead had wife, who was Mary Codwin, daughter of William Codwin, in the year, 1710. Date of marriage not known.

Arthur Whitchhead had wife Isabelle Purcell, daughter of Arthur Purcell in 1717. Date of marriage not known.

THE WHITEHEAD FAMILY IN SOUTHERN VIRGINIA

By J. B. Whitehead¹

According to tradition, the Whitehead family, now represented by various groups from New York to Georgia, and especially in Virginia and westward to Kentucky and Tennessee, all derive from early English settlers on the lower shores of the Chesapeake Bay. Thus, one account due to Lyon G. Tyler,² states that during the reign of Charles II, three brothers received a grant of land between Jamestown and the York River. A somewhat similar account, due to Hugh Blair Grigsby,³ ¹Born Norfolk, Va., Aug. 18, 1872. Now Professor of Electrical Engineering, The Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md.

²Encyclopedia of Virginia Biography, Vol. 4, p. 42.

³Private correspondence of J. B. Whitehead (1).

states that three brothers came over in the time of Cromwell, settled first in Northampton County, two of them shortly thereafter crossing the Chesapeake Bay to opposite sides of the James River.

Probably the earliest definite reference is that to Robert Whitehead who died in James City County in 1625.⁴ He mentions his "heirs" and we have other references at later periods in James City and York Counties. James Whitehead was brought into James City County by Benjamin Carrill in 1638. Nazareth Whitehead receives a land grant in 1706. There is, however, apparently no evidence of any pronounced survival of the family in this County in the later periods.

Early immigrants of whom we have more definite records⁵ are as follows:

George Whitehead, brought into Princess Anne County in 1635 by Adam Thoroughgood.

Arthur Whitehead, brought into Northampton County in 1643 by Obedience Robins.

William Whitehead, brought into Northampton County in 1655 by Jenkin Price.

Other early Whiteheads who should be mentioned and who received early land grants, but of whom there is no record of entrance, are:

Thomas Whitehead⁶ in 1653, acquired 162 acres in York County, being part of an original patent to John Dennet of James City County. His will dated 1660 and recorded in York County, indicates that he had no descendants.

Richard Whitehead,⁵ in the period 1673-99, received large grants of land in Gloucester, New Kent, King and Queen, and Rappahannock Counties. One of his land grants was for 2,000 acres in consideration of having brought 400 persons into the colony. There is frequent record of this Richard. He was a prominent man in intimate touch with influential people in England, and from the seals on a number of deeds which are still extant, it is evident that he was a member of the prominent Whitehead family of "Uplands Hall," Lancashire, England. His son Philip was a member of the House of Burgesses in 1723-4. Owing to the destruction of the records in Gloucester and King William Counties, there is apparently no certain record either as to this Richard's immediate ancestors nor to his descendants beyond Philip.

Of the first three mentioned above, there is no further record of George in Princess Anne County. Whiteheads again appear in that County in 1711, but it appears more probable that they are branches either of the Northampton or Isle of Wight groups which had already assumed considerable proportions at that time.

We fortunately have excellent record of Arthur and William who settled in Northampton in 1643 and 1655, respectively. Arthur apparently migrated, for the Northampton County records show him to have been there up to 1650 and that he owned cattle and property; but there is no record of him thereafter, nor is a will recorded. He apparently migrated to Isle of Wight County, for the first records of Whiteheads in that County show an Arthur Whitehead, Sr., and an Arthur Whitehead, Jr., between 1673 and 1706. William apparently remained in Northampton, and his succession is readily traced through several generations.

A definite succession beginning with the second Arthur W. mentioned above, in Isle of Wight and Southampton Counties is clearly defined by a series of wills, transfers, and deeds in the well-preserved records of these two Counties. The family becomes large and influential, owning large tracts of land, much of which was acquired in original grants. In 1730 a Whitehead was a member of the House of Burgesses,⁶ and two members at least of the Southampton County branch were in the Revolutionary forces, one as Captain.⁷ The families in succeeding generations were apparently large and soon spread into Surrey, Sussex, Nantmon, and possibly Princess Anne Counties. In the early part of the nineteenth century Nathan Colgate Whitehead, son of William of Southampton County, went to Norfolk as a young man, practiced medicine, and founded the branch of the family of which the writer of this article is a member. The records also show that members of the Southampton group owned large properties in North Carolina, which in all probability accounts for the spread of the name in that State, and further southward. The line of succession of the writer's immediate branch is given below. As it is traced through the Isle of Wight and Southampton periods, it will be seen how large a possibility there is for extension into neighboring counties. Examination of a large number of genealogical records, some of which are listed at the end of this paper, show many references to Whiteheads, most of which can probably be traced to the line of succession given below. Nowhere has the writer of this article been able to find so copious and clear a record of the early history of the Whitehead family as is contained in the records of Northampton, Isle of Wight and Southampton Counties. Some further references to the possible connections of other groups to this line are given in later paragraphs.

⁷Va. Hist. Mag. No. 15, 1907, p. 192.

ARTHUR W. (I) "Sr." (1623-1706)*—Immigrant—Brought into Northampton Co., Va., in 1643 by Obedience Robins. Northampton Co. records (V. III, p. 229; V. IV, p. 175) show him there up to 1650 (property and cattle transfers), but not thereafter; no will there. Possible brothers are John (1615-1677) and William (brought in 1655), both of Northampton Co., Richard of Gloucester Co. (1660).

He apparently migrated to Isle of Wight Co. The first Whitehead records there are Arthur W. (I) Sr., and Arthur W. (II) Jr., between 1673 and 1706. No will, but Arthur (II) Jr., (will 1710) refers to his mother's plantation. Children, Arthur (II) Jr., and Rebecca.

Assuming he was 20 years old when he came in and that he died in 1706, his approximate dates are 1623-1706.

ARTHUR W. (II) "Jr." (1648-1710)—Isle of Wight Co. records 1673-1710; property transfers with Arthur W. (I) Sr. Reference to sister Rebecca. Will Jan. 11, 1710/11 ("Jr." now omitted) refers to wife Mary, and to son William; evidence of a son Arthur (III) is found in the will (Southampton Co.) of the latter.

ARTHUR W. (III) (1673-1750)—Southampton Co. Will Jan. 10, 1750/51. This will is quite elaborate and indicates considerable property. Refers to sons Arthur (IV) (eldest), Lewis, and Nathan; to Patience (m. Jacob Vick), Catherine (m.—Cobb), Mary, Ann; grandsons Arthur, Benjamin, and Jacob. Also refers to brother William which is chief evidence that he is son of Arthur (II). The witnesses to the will are William W. (presumably brother) and Lazerus W. (apparently grandson, see Arthur (IV)). Wife not mentioned.

Died before 1759 (see will of son Lewis), which also refers to land patents to his father (Arthur (III)), dated April 1, 1723, and Aug. 13, 1743, 1070 acres in Isle of Wight Co. The above will bequeaths to son Arthur (IV) a plantation on the south side of Cabin Swamp. to son Lewis his own house and 175 acres, and a plantation on Maherin River.

ARTHUR W. (IV) "Jr." (1700-1748)—Isle of Wight Co. Will dated Jan. 6, 1748, and proved Apr. 13, 1749 (Bk. 5, p. 172). Bequeathed to son Arthur W. (V) 300 acres on Blunt Swamp. To son Arthur (V) and brother Lewis 200 acres bought from Wm. Hall. To son Lazerus, Cypress Swamp. To son Jesse, "plantation I now live on". To son William, one negro. To daughters Edith and Celia, one negro each. All the remainder to his "loving wife Patience", and his six children. Executors, brother Lewis and wife Patience; witnesses, son Arthur (V), and Mary W. (sister). The inventory (Bk. 5, p. 303) mentions also an estate in North Carolina. Jesse was a Captain in the Revolutionary forces.⁷

The will of Arthur (V) (Southampton Co. 1758) indicates that he had no children and died young. It mentions the brothers and sisters above, and brothers (-in-law?) Thomas Boone and Thomas Jones. His brother Lazerus named his oldest son Arthur (VI). Other children of Lazerus were Jesse, Molly, John, and Sally. John and Sally married their first cousins, children of William W. (see below).

WILLIAM W. (1740-1796)—"Planter"—Southampton Co. Fourth (?) son of Arthur W. (IV). His father left him no land. He may have inherited from one of his uncles. Of one of these, Nathan, there is no record of issue, and William named one of his sons Nathan.

Married (1st) Patience Boykin (living in 1775) and had issue: William, Richard, Patience, Sarah, Martha, Catherine. Of these, Sarah and Catherine married their first cousins Arthur W. (VI) and John W., both sons of Lazerus W., brother of this William. Catherine and four of her children were murdered in Nat Turner's negro rebellion, 1830.

Married (2nd) 1790, Clarissa (Boswell) Lamb, widow of Col. Richard Lamb (Quartermaster in Rev. War), and daughter of Jos. Boswell and Elizabeth Elliott of Gloucester Co. Children of this marriage were Nathan Colgate W. and Jos. Boswell W.

Inventory of his estate indicates that he died in 1796. In it he settles an open account with his brother Lazerus, who appears elsewhere as the guardian of William's son Nathan. Clarissa, William's second wife, survived him until 1814, leaving her "plantation" to her two sons Nathan Colgate W. and Joseph Boswell W.

NATHAN COLGATE W. (1792-1856) b. Apr. 8, 1792 Southampton Co. 4 years old when his father died. Studied medicine at Univ. Penna. (degree M. D. in 1815). Settled in Norfolk, Va., where he married, Jan. 16, 1817, Elizabeth (McPherson) Grigsby, daughter of Hugh McPherson and Lillias Blair, and widow of Rev. Benj. Grigsby of the old "Bell" Church (Presbyterian) at the corner of Catherine (later Bank) and Charlotte Sts., issue: Wm. Colgate W. (m. (1) Maria Colton, (2) Marian Crook); Mary Elizabeth W. (m. Carter Poindexter); John Boswell W. (m. Emily Arnold Herman); Elizabeth McPherson W. (died of yellow fever 1855, 34 yrs.); Cornelia Grigsby W. (m. Henry Irwin). Practiced medicine successfully, and later became a prominent banker. He was Acting Mayor of Norfolk during the yellow fever epidemic of '55 and of which he died in '56. The old Whitehead mansion, Catherine and Freeman Sts., built in 1791 came into the family through Elizabeth McPherson.

JOS. BOSWELL W., younger brother of Nathan, highly educated (Wm. and Mary College) and prominent in Isle of Wight Co., m.

(1) Frances G. Andrews, (2) Lelia W. Smith (of Smithfield), this branch of the family well represented in 1935 by Wm. Colgate W., Sheriff of Isle of Wight Co., grandson of the 2nd marriage.

JOHN BOSWELL W. (I) (1882-1904)—b. Nov. 3, 1882, Norfolk Va. Twice Mayor (1870-72, 1874-76) of Norfolk, and otherwise prominent in civic affairs. Banker and promoter. Warm personal friend of his half-brother Hugh Blair Grigsby, Chancellor of William and Mary College, distinguished historian, etc. Much of their personal correspondence still extant. m. Emily Arnold Herman, Oct. 19, 1843; issue: Henry Colgate W. (m. Margaret Walke Taylor); Emily Herman (m. Washington Taylor); Hugh Grigsby W. (I) (d. at 21 yrs.); John Boswell W. (II) (d. at 12 yrs.); Hermann W. (d. in infancy); Lelia Blair (m. W. Talbot Walke, Jr.).

HENRY COLGATE W. (1845-1920)—b. July 23, 1845. Educated at Va. Military Institute. While member of the V. M. I. cadet corps, he was wounded in the battle of New Market. Later Lieutenant in Norfolk Light Artillery Blues. m. Margaret Walke Taylor (Oct. 19, 1868); issue: Cornelia Wickham W. (m. Rev. Robt. S. Coupland); Emily Arnold W. (m. Rev. Edw. Gamble); John Boswell W. (III) (m. Mary Ellen Colston); Hugh Grigsby W. (II) (m. Irene Burwell).

JOHN BOSWELL W. (III) (1872-)—b. Aug. 18, 1872. Educated at Johns Hopkins University (El. Engr. 1893, A. B. 1898, Ph.D. 1902), Professor of Electrical Engineering and Dean of School of Engineering, The Johns Hopkins University. Prominent in engineering research. Author. Fellow and President (1933-4) of American Institute of Electrical Engineers; Fellow of the American Physical Society; Member of the National Academy of Sciences, etc. m. Mary Ellen Colston (Apr. 14, 1903); issue: Clara Colston W. (d. 1912); Margaret Walke W.; Joan Boswell W. Writer of this article and now living in Baltimore, Md.

HUGH GRIGSBY W. (II), younger brother, now a banker of Norfolk, Va. m. Irene Burwell; issue: Irene B. W. (m. Richard Marshall), Hugh Grigsby W. (III), Margaret Walke W., (m. Howard Waff), Elizabeth W.

Recalling the tradition as to original three brothers, mentioned in our opening paragraph, it will be seen that there is some coincidence in the early line of succession set forth above. The date of the first Arthur is about right, as are also his first settlement in Northampton County and his subsequent migration to Isle of Wight. The presence of three brothers, however, is more difficult to establish. William of Northampton County came in twelve years later than Arthur, and that they were brothers seems scarcely likely, although it is possible. If we attempt to reconstruct further the picture presented by the early traditions, we have little other than the dates to go on. On this basis, the most probable picture is that of Arthur of Isle of Wight and William of Northampton and Richard of Gloucester. Their dates are approximately contemporaneous and their final locations are about right.

For many years a branch of the Whitehead family has been prominent in New Jersey and New York City. The account emanating from Hugh Blair Grigsby and handed down to the writer stated that one of the three original brothers migrated northward and founded a New Jersey branch. This would point to William of Northampton, or perhaps one of his descendants. Certain it is that William and his descendants remained on the Eastern Shore of Virginia, and it is obvious that they might have spread northward into Delaware and New Jersey. Members of the Whitehead family have also been prominent in New York City. Whether these are representatives of the New Jersey group or whether they derive from several early settlers in New England between 1643 and 1660 is unknown to the writer of this article.

Another well-known and representative group is found in Kentucky and Tennessee. Their relationship to the line given above is well-established. Richard O. Whitehead of Tennessee (1870) was grandson of Richard, the son of William Whitehead of Southampton County.

Dr. William Riddick Whitehead, distinguished surgeon of Denver, Col., decorated for services in the Crimean War, was also a great-grandson of William Whitehead of Southampton County by his first wife Patience Boykin.

There is also ample record of many Whiteheads in Amherst, New Kent, Nelson, and adjacent counties in Virginia. These have been traced by Lyon G. Tyler² to a John Whitehead of New Kent County, b. 1735, but beyond this, there is no record. The line includes Dr. John Whitehead, well-known physician and surgeon of Salisbury, N. C. Dr. Richard H. Whitehead, Dean of the Medical Faculty of the University of Virginia, Maj. Thomas Whitehead, b. 1825, of Nelson County, and later of Lynchburg. It is thus suggested that a number of representatives of this line drifted into North Carolina, in addition to those spreading from the Isle of Wight and Southampton groups. There is, however nothing beyond the early tradition to indicate an original direct connection or relationship between these two groups.

Of the original Southampton line male descendants of William (I) Whitehead are living in Norfolk and in Southampton County, Virginia, in Baltimore, Md., and in Kentucky. The relationship of other groups is probably to be found in the large families of Arthur (III) W. and Arthur (IV) W.

In England the name Whitehead is a very ancient one, and was widely spread as early as 1200-1300 A. D. Five branches of the family are traced by Benjamin Whitehead,⁹ and one of the largest is the Lytherley-Lancashire group. The arms of this branch appear on the deeds, referred to above, executed by Richard Whitehead of Gloucester County, Virginia.

Mrs. George Daughtry

117 Bellamy Avenue Norfolk, Virginia

January 29th 1951

Dear Mrs. Chapman,

I'm very much confused about this Whitehead line of mine, I don't know what to tell you to do; I feel quite sure a big mistake has been made somewhere, I should have to have proof before I could sign papers, I do feel sure our William was too old, he could have had a son, my uncle, but I don't remember ever hearing of any relationship between our family and the Boykins, we had friends of that name, but I did not know them, they were my parents' friends. I think Mr. Foreman made out the papers for the cousins, maybe you could call him and learn more than I can; I'm thinking it is something that will take a trip to Washington to head office there, maybe later on I could do that, just now I'm in no physical condition to make that trip, however I might be able to get to Smithfield to see you some morning, our children are in school until two o'clock P.M. and my daughter could get away on some Saturday or Sunday afternoon, and we could talk this over, I just don't understand what your information is concerning my revolutionary successor, if I have one. I do appreciate your efforts in my behalf.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely

Carol Eley Daughtry
(Mrs. George)

Would you be willing to try my Eley line? There were Eley brothers Benjamin and William who fought in Revolutionary, and lived in Isle of Wight Co, your information would be found in Court House there, Bessie Wright is my cousin, her mother was Sally Ann Phillips Eley and she has an aunt Mrs. J. R. Jordan who might be of some help; I believe our Eley's came over here quite early in our history, and Bessie Wright has her mother's family records; let me know what you think of this? I only was pushing the Whitehead line because of what happened to my application, and what could have been the mistake my cousin made; for her sake I'd like to straighten it out, see!

Dr. Whitehead also has engaged actively in practice as consulting engineer. He was consultant to the Baltimore and Annapolis Short Line Railroad during its electrification and also to Johns Hopkins University during the period of its removal to Homewood, its present site, and in the construction of its new buildings and power plant. He was also retained as consulting engineer by the City of Baltimore during its negotiations with the Pennsylvania Railroad when that company was converting its service from steam to electricity.

Prominent in the affairs of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers for many years, he was its president in 1933-4, and founded the Baltimore Section in 1904, serving as its chairman for 19 years. From 1924 to 1928 he was a member of the board of directors, and represented the institute on the Division of Engineering and Industrial Research of the National Research Council for several years. He was also its delegate to the Conference Internationale des Grands Reseaux Electriques, Paris, in 1927.

He is a member of the National Academy of Sciences, Fellow of the American Physical Society and the American Association for the Advancement of Science, honorary member of the Society Francaise des Electriciens, and member of the Division of Engineering and Industrial Research of the National Research Council.

Awarded Honors

He was exchange professor to the universities of France in 1926-7. Honors awarded him include the Edward Longstreth Medal and the Elliott Cresson Gold Medal of the Franklin Institute, the Triennial Prize of the Institute Elektrotechnique Montefiore, Liege, Belgium, in 1922 and 1925; the Medaille d'Honneur, University of Nancy, France, 1927; Medal of Meritorious Achievement, 1934, Advertising Club of Baltimore. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Tau Beta Pi, O. D. K., and Delta Phi fraternities.

During the World War he was commissioned major in the Army Engineers Corps and was assigned to duty with the Naval Consulting Board in the development of methods for the detection of enemy submarines. Three Locations Considered for New Hospital

Bolling Avenue, Lakewood and Ocean View Sites Are Mentioned

Several possible sites for a new hospital here, if and when the funds are available from the Federal Government, were under discussion yesterday.

These include a possible site on Bolling avenue, west of Colley avenue; one in Lakewood on the waterfront, and another on property already owned by the city between the Ocean View Golf Course and East Ocean View.

All these proposed sites would offer plenty of parking space and room for beautiful surrounding grounds.

There still is some question of just what will be done to meet the need for more hospital beds here, although latest reports from Washington indicate that the Federal Works Agency is most favorable to the proposal that a new hospital be built here with Federal funds and turned over to the city for operation.

Bill Now Pending

A new bill is pending in Congress now to make a total of $150,000,000 available for community facilities financial aid in vital defense areas. Under the old Lanham Act, which provided $10,000,000 for these purposes, the FWA was able to offer the city only $750,000 toward the cost of a proposed new hospital here and this was offered on the basis of a like contribution from the city. The city was not able to find a method for matching the funds; at least, officials come to this country in 1640.

Related Here

His immediate ancestors have been prominent in Norfolk and southern Virginia, both his grandfather, the late John B. Whitehead, and his great-grandfather having been mayors of Norfolk. One of his two daughters, Mrs. William Wickham Taylor, the wife of Dr. Taylor of this city, resides with her husband here; the other, Mrs. James F. Minnes, now lives in Canada. Hugh G. Whitehead, manager of the Granby street branch of the Seaboard Citizens National Bank, is a brother of Dr. Whitehead.

Dr. Whitehead studied at the old Norfolk Academy here, and former classmates recalled last night that he carried off many prizes as a student here.

He entered Johns Hopkins University in 1889, and took his first degree in 1893. After an early period of professional work, he returned to Johns Hopkins and took the degree of Bachelor of Arts in 1898 and Doctor of Philosophy in 1902. In 1903 he married Miss Mary Ellen Colston, of Baltimore.

During his early professional period, he worked for three years for the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, and later went to Niagara Falls with the first generators of the Niagara Falls Power Company, working a year with that company in the initial stages of their plant operation.

Appointed Professor

In 1902 he was research assistant in the United States Bureau of Standards, and from 1902 to 1905 research assistant of the Carnegie Institution of Washington, working in the laboratories of Johns Hopkins. In 1904 he was appointed associate professor of applied electricity at the university, and professor in 1910.

When the school of engineering at Johns Hopkins was established with the aid of funds from the State of Maryland in 1912, Dr. Whitehead bore the greater part of the burden in planning and organizing the school. He was appointed professor of electrical engineering in the new school, advanced to the position of dean in 1919, and to director in 1938.

His chief professional interest over many years has been in the field of experimental research. He has published 60 or 70 papers embodying the results of experimental studies, principally in the field of high voltage insulation of trans-
